Looking Forward - Creative Works on the Horizon

2009 - Fall/Winter

- Evolving Blackness: Letting Go of Race-Centric Baggage
by Kim-Marie Walker (Memoir, Self-Help)

A multiethnic woman of Black American, Native Indian, and Anglo/European-American ancestry shares her journey healing from anger and fear rooted in America's past enslavement of Africans.

Self-inquiry techniques, meditation and journaling explorations engage and support readers on their own healing journey.

Includes topics of racial self-identity and conformance issues found within Black American culture.

- Elements, Kim-Marie's debut music CD (with original songs with vocals, flute, and guitar)

2010 - Spring/Summer

From a Distance (fiction) by Kim-Marie Walker
